CURTAINS REDUCE HIGHER HEATING BILLS

With the recent news of yet more year on year increases in home heating costs by major energy suppliers, leading UK curtain retailer, Paul Simon, offers a low cost, money saving opportunity to millions of families facing relentless rises in annual bills.

Homeowners will feel the chilling impact this winter of up to 17% increases in gas and electricity bills which were recently announced by major energy giants. These rises will strike a massive blow to families and pensioners up and down the Country who faced colossal price increases only last year of up to 40%. The relentless steps taken by fuel suppliers could mean that an average family will face the prospect of their annual bill soaring above £1000, adding more than £130 a year to home power expenditure on top of the recent VAT increase.

Energy efficiency awareness and undertaking is becoming a vital source of domestic cost saving and, for this reason, is a central message to customers from proactive, energy conscious retailers like Paul Simon Curtain Superstores, as Managing Director Paul Ludwin explains:

"Few people realise that money is literally going out of the window through energy inefficiency at home", says Paul. "More than 20% of heat is lost through windows yet energy experts suggest that savings of up to 25% can be simply achieved with heavy, fully lined curtains. This is a point that our staff at Paul Simon try to emphasise to customers. These products really make a difference"

He adds: "These announcements regarding rising energy bills come at the very start of our massive Blue-X Sale. This event is one of our biggest of the year when we offer an EXTRA 20% OFF already low sale prices on selected curtains, fabrics, nets, poles and blinds. In fact, during this event, we will be offering fully lined, energy saving curtains from as little as £12.79 a pair. In anyone's terms, that's a small price to pay for such large potential energy savings"

With over 50 stores nationwide, Paul Simon are one of the only curtain specialists across the UK. They have more than 200 stunning readymade curtains on display and thousands of luxurious made to measure fabrics to choose from. For more than two decades they have been renowned for excellent choice, quality, value and service, so with extra savings of 20% off sale prices, it is well worth investing a little energy in visiting the Blue-X event at Paul Simon. MOVES to part-privatise Parndon Wood Cemetery and Crematorium have been put on hold after furious Labour councillors called in the decision for further discussion.

Scrutiny committee members Paul Sztumpf and Rod Truan contested the decision made by the Conservative-run council's executive committee last month, claiming it had failed to consider all the available options to keep the facility in-house.

The move follows years of debate regarding the possible privatisation of the ageing crematorium, an option first considered in 2007 by the then Labour and Liberal Democrat-run council following heavy criticism of the building's condition by inspectors.

Labour group leader Mark Wilkinson told the Star: "The reason our councillors called in the decision is because they believe that, once again, the Tory council is trying to privatise as quickly as possible without going through all the options."

"If privatisation of the crematorium goes ahead, the price for people using the service will rocket, meaning they won't be able to take the options they want or they will have to go somewhere else to say goodbye to their loved ones.

"Though the council needs to make money somewhere, this isn't the right area. Somewhere like a crematorium needs to be all about service, not about making a profit."

The scrutiny committee has the power to confirm the original decision or recommend that it should be reconsidered by the executive committee or the full council.

Should the part-privatisation plan go ahead, the council would remain owners of the crematorium,

College dance students put through their paces

TALENTED students from the Harlow College dance academy wowed audiences in a choreography competition.

First and second year students were required to choreograph and perform themed pieces for the Your Chance to Dance challenge which were judged by experts from the industry.

Second year pupils Chelsea Nichol (18), Ashley Wallis (18) and Emma Fosh (17 - pictured far right - formed the winning group with their Ground Zero routine which focused on the aftermath of the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center.

"It was a shock and a relief when we found out we'd won to be honest," said Chelsea. "We'd all worked really hard and tried to be a bit different with our idea which obviously paid off!"

Senior tutor Charlotte Tamplin said: "The standard of the choreography was very high and the comments given to the students from the judges were constructive feedback which hopefully they will take on board."

Two accused of drugs offences

TWO men have appeared in court on drugs charges after police discovered a cannabis factory.

Stuart Ellis (38), of Longfield, Harlow, and Lee Bridger (41), of Matching Green, were arrested at the property in Little Canfield on Friday by officers executing a warrant under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971.

Both men were later charged with one count each of producing cannabis. They appeared before magistrates in Chelmsford on Saturday.

They were remanded in court custody to appear via video link at Harlow Magistrates Court on February 7.

Council planning rents hike of 6%

COUNCIL tenants will be hit by above-inflation rent rises this year if housing budget proposals are approved by councillors next week.

The Government-sanctioned rent hike will see the average weekly bill rise from £73.56 to £78.16 per property – an increase of 6.25 per cent.

Garage rents will also go up from April, with the weekly charge for a standard garage rising by 15p per week to £7.80. However, the average weekly service charge for council tenants will remain at £2 per household.

The average communal heating charge for tenants will go down to £10.11 a week from £10.68, with bills capped at £15.43 a week

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsexnews.co.uk

for one-bedroom properties to safeguard against fuel poverty.

Heating costs for residents in sheltered accommodation will go up by an average of £1 per week, but this is due to a phased eight-year increase introduced in 2008 to bring the subsidised charge into line with rising energy prices.

Councillor Clive Souter, chairman of the housing policy working group, said: "Rents will go up as the cost of living increases but they are in line with the Government's recommended guidelines."

"For most tenants communal heating charges will go down, but charges for sheltered housing tenants will go up as part of planned gradual increases."

"In funding services at the level required we charge the exact cost for communal heating, but we ensure the most vulnerable are protected from steep increases."

The proposals also reveal council plans to save £245,000 from the Housing Revenue Account budget by "streamlining" senior housing management, reducing overtime, freezing recruitment and cutting back on the use of consultants.

Around £40,000 will be spent on minor improvements and repairs to housing estates, £30,000 will be put towards meeting health and safety requirements and a further £15,000 invested in "engaging" with tenants and leaseholders.

The administration has also set aside £14m in its Housing Capital Programme to be used for priority improvements and maintenance, with £2.2m allocated for central heating repairs, £1.2m for kitchen and bathroom upgrades and £800,000 for window and door replacements.

Councillor Souter described the proposals as a "very good budget for tenants".

"We are proposing to cut our management overheads along with overtime and recruitment costs so the money can be used to support the services our tenants want," he added.

"We want our tenants to live in decent homes and that is where we are putting more money. We are providing better value for money and being more efficient so tenants know exactly what they get for the rent and service charges."

The budget proposals are due to be discussed tonight (Thursday) at a meeting of Harlow Council's executive committee before being put before full council for approval next Thursday (February 10).

Here come the girls: it's Race for Life

WOMEN in Harlow are being asked to sign up to one of the biggest annual fundraising events to be staged in the town.

This year's Cancer Research UK Race for Life, which is once again being supported by the Star, will take place in the Town Park on Sunday, May 15. And organisers have set their sights on beating last year's total of £216,343. This year's target is £315,000.

Their aim is to sign up 4,300 mums, sisters, daughters, aunts, friends and workmates for what has become part of the UK's largest women-only fundraising event.

Race for Life event manager Lucy Hynes, said: "Race for Life in Harlow is a unique celebration of sisterhood and pride.

"The atmosphere is amazing, with local women from all walks of life coming together to make a positive difference to people affected by cancer.

"This year we hope more women than ever before will take part. We need our Race for Life regulars, as well as women who took part years ago, to join together with many new faces to help save more lives."

All women – whatever their age, shape, size and abilities – are invited to walk, jog or run the 5k or 10k routes and raise money to help beat cancer.

To enter, log on to www.raceforlife.org or call 08716 411111.

Mum's plea for help to buy Tia a special trike

By VICKY LANE

vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A HARLOW family is calling on the support of the local community to help raise enough money to make their disabled toddler's dreams of riding a bike come true.

Tia Hunt (3), who suffers with Diplegia Cerebral Palsy, needs a specialised tricycle so she can cycle like her twin sister Mia and brother Dylan but her family cannot afford to buy one.

The tricycle, which costs £1,250, would also provide physiotherapy for Tia, whose condition causes delayed muscle growth, stiff joints, lack of co-ordination and balance.

Mum Larinna Penman, of Potter Street, said: "To be able to give Tia a bike will make her so happy and be overwhelming for all of us.

"At the minute it's something she can't do and it frustrates her. She wants to do everything she sees other children doing."

Caudwell Children, a national charity which provides specialist equipment, treatment and therapies for sick and disabled children, is driving the fundraising initiative.

Chief executive officer Trudi Beswick said: "We are eager to help make Tia's dream come true by providing her with a piece of equipment which promotes social inclusion, helps build confidence and aids physiotherapy.

"We are asking kind-hearted members of the local community to help us provide this life-changing equipment by contributing to the fundraising or by holding their own charity event.

"Any help is gratefully received and should we raise over the required amount the funds will be used to support another donation for a similar sick or disabled child."

The adapted tricycle is specially modified to meet the individual needs of children with cerebral palsy. Due to the specialist nature of the tricycles they can cost up to 10 times more than a normal child's bike and, therefore, are often out of financial reach for families.

"The other children often choose not to do things because they don't want to leave Tia out," said Larinna. "It will be great for them to be able to all do something together which they will love and enjoy."

Anybody wishing to help raise funds for Tia's appeal should contact Caudwell Children or visit www.justgiving.com/TiaLouisa.

Group brings together parents in the 'twin' set

PARENTS of twins, triplets – or more – are being invited to weekly sessions of a support group.

Twice As Nice has been set up by Home-Start Harlow for parents who have experienced multiple births and whose children are under the age of five.

Parents preparing for a multiple birth are also welcome to attend. The sessions allow them to meet other people in the same situation to get together, talk about their experiences and share solutions for common difficulties.

Midwives are present at some sessions to talk about topics such as breastfeeding, weaning and sleep routines.

Angela Caistor, co-ordinator at Home-Start-Harlow, said, "Twice As Nice offers a time when expectant mothers of multiple children, or parents with their twins, triplets or more can all get together and share advice on a subject they have in common.

"The sessions are free and we would love as many people as space permits to come and join in and make some new friends."

The group meets at the Latton Bush Centre, in Southern Way, every Friday from 11am-1pm. For more information, contact Angela on (01279) 451669.

Helping people with gambling addiction

A NEW drop-in centre for people with an addiction to gambling will open in Harlow next month.

Gamblers Anonymous plans to run weekly sessions at the Rainbow Services centre in Wych Elm to offer support and advice to those with a problem or for people who are concerned about the habits of a friend or relative.

"People from all walks and ways of life suffer with gambling problems," said a GA spokesman. "It really can affect anyone and is devastating for both them and their families when it does. It loses people their jobs, wrecks marriages, turns people into crooks and can even lead to suicide.

"This drop-in centre is offering people the support they need to get better, but for us to be successful people must be able to admit they have a problem and must want to stop gambling.

"Anyone can come in for a chat and a coffee and then we can direct them to relevant literature, support groups and meetings. We have a simple 12-step programme which, if the people really want to change, will work."

The drop-in centre opens, on Wednesday, February 16 and will run weekly from noon-2.30pm. For more information call 07412 372838

Hospice launches a 'fill a tin' campaign

CLUBS, shops, restaurants, pubs and community groups in Harlow are being asked to take part in St Clare Hospice's latest fundraising campaign.

The 'Fill a Tin in February' challenge aims to raise £5,000 to help with the Hastingwood hospice's £2.6m annual running costs.

Hospice communications manager Giles Wright said: "The hospice has been built and run over the past two decades by lots of small donations and by people putting coins in tins."

"Our first £100 was raised by a pint glass being placed on a bar one evening. You really can make a difference by donating your loose change."

If you want to take part in the fundraising challenge or have an ideal place to display a collection tin, call the hospice community fundraising team on (01279) 773750 or email Vicky.Parker@stclarehospice.org.uk.

School hits back in Academy row

By VICKY LANE

vicky.lane@hertsexnews.co.uk

THE backlash against plans by Passmores School to gain Academy status has continued with more than 50 people attending a public meeting to protest against the move.

Organised by the political pressure group Harlow Against The Cuts, the forum heard teachers and members of the public voice their frustration at what they claimed was a lack of consultation on the proposals.

It was agreed that they should step up their campaign urging parents to question the move.

The audience also heard from National Union of Teachers representative Jerry Glazier, who warned that Academy status would lead to the engagement of sponsors for additional funding, thereby opening the door to private sector control and the creation of a "damaging two-tier system of secondary education."

Speaking after the meeting, HATC group secretary David Forman said: "Many of the audience had only learnt of the Passmores governors' decision to become an Academy after reading last week's article in the Star

School under fire for Academy bid

FLASHBACK: Last week's Star report on the day of the meeting.

"We, and many others, believe that creating an Academy at the new Passmores School in Harlow will destroy comprehensive education in the town."

"They are part of a concerted and wider Government plan to privatise state assets which would inevitably lead to poorer services, lower pay and substantial job losses just as previous privatisations have sadly demonstrated."

This week the board of governors at Passmores responded to the criticism by stating that neither parents nor school staff had expressed any concerns over the plans.

Chairman Paul Beashel said: "A letter was sent to all parents on July 9 last year advising them that Academy status was being considered and inviting them to a consultation meeting on July 21."

"Headteacher Vic Goddard attended that meeting and parents expressed no concerns about the prospect of the school becoming an Academy."

"The letter also invited parents to contact the headteacher to raise questions and make comments. To date he has received none."

"Staff at the school, and union representatives, have also been similarly consulted as groups and individually."

He added: "All of the existing staff, both teaching and non-teaching, will remain at the school on exactly the same pay and conditions as before. The move may actually create several new posts at the school."

"Although the change to Academy status will remove the school from local authority control, this does not mean standards will fall in any way. The monitoring of standards at the school has been the responsibility of the school governors and of OFSTED in the past and this will continue in the future."

"The governors' decision to apply for Academy status is in the best interests of the school and its pupils."

Paying the price of Labour's mistakes

SIR, So what has the county council ever done for me? ("Whitehall should let us keep our money", Letters, January 27).

Let us start with running the libraries and schools and employing hundreds of teachers and social workers. Then add their focus on Harlow Council's regeneration priority, improving access to the M11, a brand new cycle track along Southern Way and improvements to First Avenue. Oh, and a sparkling new Passmore School.

Jim Rogers and Cliff Moore also refer to the £52m "lost" to the Government in housing revenue and business rates every year. Well, £40m of that comes straight back to help the less well off in the form of housing benefit, administered by Harlow Council. And who pays for the other benefits to those living in the deprived areas to which they refer?

The Respect Party is correct in one aspect – the use of local taxes as another stealth tax. The Labour government loaded more services on to councils but failed to pay for them, concessionary bus fares for example.

Gordon Brown said he was providing free bus travel for the retired but expected councils to fund most of it. So councils had to either increase council tax or cut services to pay for a national scheme.

And they are right to question where the income tax and VAT goes. Repaying Mr Brown's big fat debt. We could have another entire health service if we didn't have to repay the debt and cover the interest costs.

So yes, we would all love to keep more money in Harlow but we have to pay for Labour's mismanagement of the economy – the mistakes of Mr Brown and his henchmen Ed Miliband and Ed Balls.

Councillor Simon Carter
Mark Hall Moors, Harlow

Tory government supported Saddam

SIR, On the evidence of the article 'Kurdistan: Triumph Of Democracy' (Star, January 20), Harlow MP Robert Halfon would be well-advised to plead ignorance if he wishes to avoid a charge of hypocrisy. The Conservative Party has been complicit in the deaths of more than a few Iraqi Kurds and Arabs.

When Iraqi forces crossed the border with Iran in 1980, sparking all-out war between the two countries (the first Gulf War), this was seen as no bad thing by the British government of the day. It supplied Saddam with weapons and later dispatched Royal Navy warships to protect the oil tankers of Iraq's Arab Gulf state backers from attack by Iranian forces.

Mr Halfon describes Saddam's poison gas attack on the Kurdish town of Halabja which killed 5,000 civilians. However, he fails to mention that within a month of this vile atrocity the Thatcher government offered the Iraqi government £340m in export credits. The spectacle of Conservative politicians citing the Halabja massacre years after the event in support of their warmongering is more than a little nauseating.

Sanctions against Iraq, in the form of an embargo on foreign trade, were imposed in 1990 in response to the occupation of Kuwait by Iraqi forces and were maintained after the forced Iraqi withdrawal of 1991 (the second Gulf War) with the aim of inducing it to divest itself of chemical and biological weapons. The Iraqi regime complied but the British government insisted on maintaining the embargo even though weapons inspectors could find no evidence it had retained these weapons.

By the time the Conservatives left office in 1997, United Nations agencies had estimated that over half a million children in Iraq had died as a result of the shortages of food and medicine caused by the embargo. Tony Blair's New Labour government continued this murderous policy with support from the Conservative opposition.

The Conservatives then voted in favour of the Anglo-American invasion of 2003, a reckless adventure that plunged Iraq into a chaos that led to hundreds of thousands of deaths and made refugees of four million Iraqis.

The history of the past 30 years of Anglo-Iraqi relations suggests that Conservative and New Labour policy was not motivated by concern for the welfare of the people of Iraq.

Mobility scooters are also a danger

SIR, Further to your report about the proposed ban on bikes in the town centre, this is welcome news. I had always assumed that pedestrian areas were intended for the exclusive use of pedestrians. How naïve I have been! In addition to cyclists I would like to see a curb on the use of mobility scooters. Whilst the majority of users are considerate of others, there does seem to exist a small number with the 'boy racer' or 'couldn't care less' attitude.

These vehicles are relatively quiet and can appear suddenly around corners. By comparison, the approach of a gang of yobs on bikes is often heralded by hoots of derision, randomly hurled insults and a range of expletives so at least we know they're coming.

Having once had a mobility scooter run over my foot, I can say from experience that they can be potentially dangerous if not handled with care.

I would further suggest that a blanket ban be imposed on activities such as skateboarding in pedestrian areas. Surely designated areas could be set aside for such activities?

I would also like to see any byelaw extended to include, among other areas, Staple Tyre, Abercrombie Way and the footpaths in my own neighbourhood of Moorfield. I have twice recently had altercations with cyclists insisting that they had right of way on what I had always considered to be footpaths along each side of Abercrombie Way. If they are correct, then how are pedestrians expected to negotiate the journey?

Last summer I was struck by a cyclist while on a footpath in Moorfield. In his defence he claimed that he had shouted a warning that I should get out of the way.

One of his friends further advised that I should get on my way, mind my own business and "get a life".

On this occasion I was fortunate. Aside from a grazed shin and broken spectacles I emerged relatively unscathed. I fear that an elderly and less mobile person than myself may not have been so lucky.

I feel on balance that any measures to counter such anti-social behaviour are long overdue.

Clive Pritchard
Moorfield, Harlow

SIR, As a keen, dedicated cyclist, I welcome the plans to outlaw cycling through the shopping areas (Star, January 20). I have always dismounted in pedestrian-only parts of the town.

John Curry is obviously another dedicated cyclist but he is quite wrong to criticise the introduction of a new byelaw.

I daresay John and myself would "cycle carefully" but the matter goes further than that. Laws are passed to hit the troublemakers and the old-fashioned cyclists must dismount, however careful they are.

Having said all this, I think the council will be very lucky to be able to cure the problem. Lots of councillors throughout the county have had no success, mainly because most young cyclists like to be "macho".

How many cyclists use lights in hours of darkness? Has anyone seen a paperboy on a bike with lights early on a winter's morning? There is nothing macho about having lights, nor mudguards for that matter. As for a warning bell? No chance.

Shame on Tesco

SIR, On Saturday morning I visited the Tesco store at Church Langley and saw two women collecting for Guide Dogs for the Blind with their two very well trained puppies.

However, as I left the store these women were standing outside the entrance canopy in the freezing cold instead of inside as usual. I asked why they were outside and was told the duty manager had refused to let them stand inside the canopy, which is separated from the shop by doors, as he didn't allow collectors to do so on his shifts.

I have many times seen collectors in this area and even inside the store on occasions, so why were they singled out in this way? If he tries to use the excuse that they had puppies with them, I thought that most stores allow guide dogs inside shops.

Although the women were enduring the cold themselves they were so worried the puppies would get cold that they were taking it in turns to take them back to the car to keep warm.

Car clamp dismay

SIR, Recently I picked up my new car in Suffolk and went straight to the post office across the road from the dealer to buy my road tax. I then drove my completely road legal car back home to Harlow and parked it outside my house.

The following morning I found my new car had been clamped and plastered with signs warning "do not to attempt to move this untaxed vehicle".

The last time I had seen my car was at about 2am on the Sunday morning which means that the clampers were on the prowl in the small hours. They left a leaflet saying that I would need to pay a fine of £100 within 24 hours to get the clamp removed. After that the fine would increase to £200.

There were no details of the time or date the car had been clamped. The leaflet also stated the telephone line opening times and that they were closed on Sundays, forcing the 24-hour deadline to elapse.

I called the police who ran a check which confirmed my car was taxed but they said they couldn't help and that if I removed the clamp that I could be charged with criminal damage.

On Monday morning my husband duly called the telephone number on the leaflet. They ran a check which confirmed the car was taxed and they agreed to release the clamp, free of charge, within two hours. Surely they should have checked BEFORE they clamped the car.

It seems these cowboys are allowed to abuse completely innocent drivers and that we are not allowed to defend ourselves in any way. My husband lost a day's work to sort this out and I had to cancel all my arrangements for Sunday.

They eventually removed the clamp on Monday but I had to make alternative arrangements to get to work. I am utterly dismayed at what has happened; it's a complete disgrace.

Toilet closures

SIR, When the previous skatepark existed at Spurriers in the Town Park the toilets were quite close at hand. But the new skate area has no toilets, the nearest being in School Lane or The Stow.

The proposal now is that both these public facilities should close, together with toilets in Bush Fair. So where will the skateboarders go – in the park bushes? Have the powers-that-be thought of this?

We are told that closing these toilets will save the council £146,300, amounting to £938 per week for each set of toilets. But it's more likely these facilities have been neglected for so long that this is the cost of refurbishment alone.

It's a struggle says mum of tot with rare heart defect

vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THE mother of a seriously ill toddler is hoping to set up a support group for parents of children born with congenital heart defects.

Emily Walters (26), whose three-year-old son Mackenzie suffers from the rare disease hypoplastic left heart syndrome, said she is determined to raise local awareness of heart conditions and give parents going through a similar ordeal the chance to meet and offer each other support.

"There are no support groups in Harlow, although I have been advised that there are other children suffering similar conditions in the area," said Emily, of Gladwin Way, Harlow.

"It is such a heartbreaking struggle to go through on your own and it would be so wonderful to meet with other parents who understand what we go through so we can all support each other."

Congenital heart disease affects about one in every 145 births in the UK. For more than half of these babies the condition is a minor problem which either needs no treatment or can be corrected with surgery after they are born. However, other conditions are more serious and can prove fatal.

Emily was 22 weeks pregnant when she was told of Mackenzie's life-limiting disorder, which has restricted the development of the left side of his heart and means he will need ongoing surgery for the rest of his life.

"I just can't put into words how

upsetting it was," she said. "He was given a 50 per cent chance of survival and I was offered termination, which I knew just wasn't an option."

"I have never regretted my decision but I cannot emphasise just how hard it has been."

"We've almost lost him three times now and he will need ongoing heart surgery for the rest of his life which will be greatly shortened."

"Even so, we were lucky in that they were ready to treat him when he was born as CHD is not normally screened for during pregnancy. You have to ask for it to be done."

Anyone wishing to contact Emily with a view to setting up a support group in Harlow can call her on 07796 613096.

Let-off for shop thief who kept going back for more

A SHOPLIFTER who targeted the same supermarket on three separate occasions has been given a suspended prison sentence.

St Albans Crown Court was told Jason Heath (37), of Ladyshot, Harlow, helped himself to hundreds of pounds worth of goods from Tesco in Bishop's Stortford.

On one occasion he walked into the store, loaded two trollies with meat and attempted to leave without paying. When a security guard tried to stop him, Heath pushed him in the stomach and then fled in a car with two other men.

On another occasion he walked past staff with a trolley full of items worth more than £600. He claimed he had already paid for the goods and waived a piece of paper resembling a receipt but he was arrested after staff recognised him and called the police.

Ian Boyes, representing Heath who pleaded guilty to three charges of theft, said in mitigation his client had attended drug rehabilitation and was now working on a building site.

Sentencing Heath to nine months imprisonment suspended for 18 months, Judge John Plumstead told him: "You're a crook, you're a thief and not a clever thief."

"If you behave yourself you will stay out of jail. If not, you deserve it."

Go-ahead for unit to treat kidney patients

DIALYSIS patients should soon be able to receive treatment in Harlow after health chiefs approved plans to set up a new renal unit in the town.

The service will be funded by part of a multi-million pound investment secured by the East of England Specialist Commissioning Group from all 13 primary care trusts in the region.

The announcement comes after a public consultation on renal services attracted a huge response from people living in Harlow who currently have to travel to Basildon, Chelmsford or London for treatment.

Patients in the area will also benefit from increased investment in home therapies, giving those suitable the opportunity for self-treatment at home.

Catherine O'Connell, chief operating officer at the SCG added: "This is good news for people needing dialysis and we are very pleased to be able to expand renal services across the east of England, increasing access to treatment and improving patient choice."

"This will not only help existing patients but will also benefit those who require the service in the future."

Labour calls in crem 'sell-off'

taking a cut of the annual profits and retaining control over any significant changes.

The new leaseholder would manage the facility and be expected to invest heavily in the service on top of paying an annual fee.

Liberal Democrat group leader Chris Millington, who supported the part-privatisation deal at last month's executive committee meeting, said the council could not afford to make the necessary improvements to the service.

"It is the right of Labour councillors to call it in if they have concerns, but I believe this is the best way forward for the crematorium," he said.

"A lot of people are upset about the state of the facilities but the investment needed to put them right could cost millions, something the council is unlikely to be able to fund."

Council leader Andrew Johnson added: "It is a healthy part of our decision-making process that sensitive issues like this can be scrutinised and reviewed by councillors from all parties."

The issue will be discussed at a special meeting of the scrutiny committee on Tuesday.

Indulge yourself at charity fundraiser

WHY not treat yourself to a mini-pamper evening tomorrow (Friday) by attending a fundraising indulgence night in aid of the Annabelle Rose Foundation for Spinal Muscular Atrophy.

Beauticians, hairdressers and a tarot reader will be offering their services for a discounted price to raise money for the Harlow-based charity set up in memory of Annabelle Rose who died from SMA at just seven months old.

Her mum, Charlotte Burfitt, said: "This is the first event we have put on as a registered charity and we know it's going to be a great evening."

The indulgence night takes place at the Princess Alexandra Hospital Social Club, in Hamstel Road, from 7.30pm. Admission is £2; for more details call 0300 8000 762.

Cab firm sends car details via text messages

CUSTOMERS using a Harlow minicab firm are being offered a text message service to improve their safety.

The safety text system introduced by ABC Cars works by sending details of the car make, model, colour and registration number to the mobile phone of the person who booked the cab.

The firm, which operates from its base on the Pinnacles industrial estate, said it is the first to adopt the service in the town and hopes it will protect customers from unlicensed minicabs and bring to an end disputes over bookings.

"The textback system is a simple but effective way of improving the safety of our customers by making it absolutely clear what their cab looks like," said ABC director Nick Jones.

"The text is sent as soon as the cab has arrived, meaning there is no need to hang around outside in the cold waiting for your cab to turn up and no arguments with other people waiting to be taken home."

He added: "It has proved very popular in other towns and cities across the country and we're already sending thousands of these messages every week to customers in Harlow."

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsexnews.co.uk

"We've had lots of people, especially women travelling on their own, saying it gives them extra peace of mind when booking a cab."

Mr Jones highlighted the tragic case of 34-year-old Mark White, who died in Harlow town centre in 2008 after being punched in the face during a row over a booked minicab, and said he hoped that other would adopt the service to help to prevent similar disputes from occurring.

"The more firms that start using this service, the safer customers will become," he said. "You only have to look at that incident a couple of years ago to see what can happen if an argument over a cab gets out of hand."

"This system should bring an end to any disputes."

Police seeking witnesses to robbery on footpath

POLICE this week issued an appeal for witness to a robbery in which a teenager was assaulted two days before Christmas.

The incident took place at 5.45pm on Thursday, December 23 as the 18-year-old victim was walking along a footpath near Whitewaites, Harlow.

Although he was listening to his MP3 player, he heard a vehicle approach before three men appeared from behind and demanded his mobile phone.

Pushing him to the floor, they repeatedly punched and kicked him before snatching his MP3 player and a passport.

It is believed the suspects may have been driving a small black hatchback style vehicle which may have been parked in the area of Whitewaites.

PC Jody Greenfield, of Harlow police, said: "I am keen to speak to anyone who may have any information regarding this unprovoked crime."

Anyone with information can contact PC Jody Greenfield at Harlow police station on 0300 333 4444.

Council set to press ahead with plans to demolish bungalows

PLANS to bulldoze bungalows on three Harlow housing estates and build more than 200 new homes in their place gathered pace this week as the council began searching for an architect to fine-tune the proposals.

Letters have been sent to residents of The Briars, Copshall Close and Aylets Field – three of the 'priority estates' earmarked for regeneration – updating them on the plans and advising that initial demolition notices would soon be issued to affected households.

The phased redevelopment is set to start in 2013 and will see 214 bungalows demolished in small groups and replacement homes built within a new layout.

The council claims that using this approach will mean many residents will be able to move straight from their current home to their new one without having to move into temporary accommodation elsewhere.

Council leader Andrew Johnson said: "We understand that this may be a worrying time for residents but we will continue to work closely with them as the plans move forward."

"Residents from The Briars, Copshall Close and Aylets Field should not be alarmed by the reference in their letters to the initial demolition notice on the bungalows. This is to give them the maximum notice and is a normal part of the process and will not affect the timing of the redevelopment. No homes will be demolished before 2013."

Liberal Democrat councillor John Strachan, whose home in The Briars is set to be demolished as part of the plans, said he hoped the needs of vulnerable residents would be taken into account.

"Now a decision has been made the challenge facing the administration is to fulfil the promises made to residents and actually engage them in shaping the area," he told the Star.

"There are an awful lot of disabled and elderly people living here so it's absolutely vital that their needs are properly taken into account when the new homes are being designed and built."

Bear necessities

A plucky polar bear was forced to swim continuously for more than NINE DAYS because it couldn't find any ice to rest on.

Scientists in the Beaufort Sea north of Alaska tracked the animal's incredible 426-mile journey – and blamed climate change for its ordeal.

Polar bears are known to swim between land and ice floes to hunt seals. But the research team believe global warming is gradually melting the ice, meaning the bears have to swim much further than ever before.

They have also warned the increasingly long swims could damage the health and strength of future generations of polar bears.

Research zoologist George M Durner described the journey as amazing. "This bear swam continuously for 232 hours and 687 kilometres (426 miles) through waters that were between 2-6 degrees C (35-42 degrees F)," he told reporters.

"We are in awe that an animal that spends most of its time on the surface of sea ice could swim constantly for so long in water that cold. It is truly an amazing feat."

But he added that the epic journey, tracked with a satellite collar that had been placed on the bear, came at a high cost for the animal which lost almost a quarter of her body fat as a result.

"This dependency on sea ice potentially makes polar bears one of the most at-risk large mammals to climate change."

Council leader to join homelessness charity's sleepout

HARLOW Council leader Andrew Johnson will swap his home comforts for a night under the stars tomorrow (Friday) to raise awareness of the plight of the town's homeless.

The Conservative councillor will join other plucky residents braving the cold in the grounds of St Mary-at-Latton Church in The Gowers to raise money for local charity Streets2Homes.

"Locally, Streets2Homes does a tremendous year-round job of supporting people who find themselves in difficult situations," Mr Johnson told the Star. "That's why I'm very happy to join other volunteers and take part in this initiative to raise cash for the charity and awareness of their work."

Streets2Homes manager Kerrie Eastman said there was still time for others to sign up to take part in the event.

"We are doing the sleepout not only to raise money for the organisation but also to raise awareness in the community about the issues of being homeless," she said.

"We hope people will see what it's like and build empathy for people going through such struggles on a regular basis."

The sleepout begins at 9.30pm with an hour of live entertainment provided by local musicians. For more details, contact Streets2Homes on (01279) 430011 between 8.30am and 2pm or email Rev Lynn Hurry at revlynn@btinternet.com.

Law firm PA guilty of credit card fraud

Teenager tastes success in cookery competition

A BUDDING culinary whizz handled the heat to come out top in a cookery competition judged by celebrity chef James Martin. Burnt Mill School pupil Sophie-Megan Robinson (14) tantalised the judges' tastebuds at the regional final of the Red Tractor beef and lamb mince challenge with her dish of puff pastry, lamb mince and courgette ribbon roll on mashed potato, served with a beetroot puree.

Seven students from across the region made it through to the one-hour final cook-off in London on Friday.

Sophie, pictured above with James and Burnt Mill food technology teacher Donna Walsh, scooped the top prize of an iPod Touch for herself and £200 worth of cookery equipment vouchers for the school.

"When they announced second place I thought I hadn't won anything and had my hands ready to clap for the winner," she said. "So when they said my name I was so shocked!"

"I had been so nervous all day and just couldn't believe I had won."

Burnt Mill headteacher Helena Mills said: "How proud we are of Sophie and look forward to supporting her as she goes through to the national stage of the competition."

Ms Walsh added: "It's the first time we've entered a competition like this so we didn't really expect any pupils to get through to the finals, let alone to win the competition."

"Everyone at the school is hugely proud of Sophie and is wishing her well."

All the winners from the regional heats have now been put forward for the overall competition champion title, the winner of which will be announced shortly.

A SECRETARY at a top law firm lived a jetset lifestyle after splashing out more than £23,000 on company credit cards.

Jodie Groom (33), of Taylifers, Harlow, went on wild spending sprees, treating herself, her boyfriend and his family to foreign holidays with thousands in spending money.

Groom, who was a personal assistant to two partners at law firm Clifford Chance in Canary Wharf, also bought designer clothes, theatre tickets and a computer.

But the trickster, who admitted to 15 charges of fraud, was jailed for 15 months when she appeared at Snaresbrook Crown Court on Friday.

However, she will not have to pay back a penny of the money she spent after pleading poverty.

The court heard that Groom's spending spree lasted from February 2008 to May 2009 while she was working as a PA to law firm partners Tracy London and David Metzger.

Prosecutor Arizuna Asante told the court: "She was in a position of trust, employed as a company secretary within that firm."

"She had access to the corporate credit cards of these partners and she was entrusted to use these credit cards."

"It is effectively blind trust because the company credit card can be used – and

By COURT REPORTER
star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

was used – in order to purchase foreign exchange, accommodation and entertainment."

Groom booked three holidays to Portugal for herself and her then boyfriend and his parents, splashing out up to £16,500 in foreign currency alone.

She also booked flights to Turkey and theatre tickets through the Ticketmaster website.

But Avtar Bhatoa, representing Groom, said prosecutors seeking confiscation of her assets to pay back her ill-gotten gains could forget it.

"She lives in council house accommodation on jobseekers' allowance with no savings," he told the court.

Mr Bhatoa said she had been trying to impress her boyfriend and his family with the holidays, adding: "She had a steady and decent career. After her arrest and dismissal her world has basically fallen apart."

Jailing Groom, Judge Murray Shanks told her: "In short you stole £23,413 over a period of 15 months from Clifford Chance or the partners for whom you were responsible."

"It was not very sophisticated; you were going to get caught one day. People have got to be discouraged from this kind of stealing from their employers."

Time running out for comments on county's transport blueprint

HARLOW residents have just eight days to have their say on the future of highways and transportation services in Essex.

Consultation on the Local Transport Plan, which sets out Essex County Council's vision for transport and how it will be delivered, closes on Friday, February 11.

With more than £100m spent each year on the county's roads, footpaths, bus links and other transport services, highways and transportation make up one of the largest areas of the cash-strapped authority's expenditure.

With future cutbacks looking inevitable, ECC is seeking opinions on which services should be prioritised and protected.

Norman Hume, cabinet member for highways & transportation at County Hall, said: "Investment in transport is very important to our residents and the success of the Essex economy."

"However, at a time when there is limited funding available for services across the county council, we need to make difficult decisions on how we prioritise expenditure."

"This consultation is an excellent opportunity for residents to tell us more about their needs for transport and what they believe the priorities of the new Local Transport Plan should be."

To take part online, visit www.essex.gov.uk/LTP. Paper copies can be requested by calling 0845 7430 430.

The hermit who lived in a cave lined with cash

THIS week we are on the trail of one of Harlow's legendary 'characters' who lived in a cave by the side of the town's railway tracks between 1935 and 1957.

This gentleman went by the name of Charlie Haddock, although some of our Nostalgia readers may know him under his more popular nickname – the Harlow Hermit.

According to the story in Clare Baster's book Harlow, his cave was dug out of the side of a gravel pit. It is said that while the cave was sparsely furnished it was richly decorated – literally – with £5 notes lining the walls.

For unlike most hermits, Charlie

vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

was an affluent man who would regularly frequent the White Horse pub in Old Harlow and treat his fellow patrons to drinks whilst showing off his war medals and recounting stories of his heroic feats in battle.

He was also known for the pheasants and rabbits he sold in the community, which he had shot with his catapult or killed with a stick.

Charlie's simplistic lifestyle came to an abrupt end in 1957 when, while recovering in hospital from a bout of pneumonia, vandals broke into his cave and torched the place. Sadly, he passed away soon after.

Years later, two people claiming to be his relatives turned up in Harlow and revealed Charlie as a fraud. They said his real surname was Skate, that he had only been in the Army for six days, the medals did not belong to him and the reason he came to Harlow was to hide from a girl he had been involved with in Australia.

So here is the challenge for our readers this week – what is the truth behind this story of the Harlow Hermit? Can anyone confirm whether he existed? Has anyone heard a different tale? Did anyone ever meet Charlie?

Write to Nostalgia, 6 West Gate, Harlow, CM20 1JW or email vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk.

NOSTALGIA UPDATE: Harlow Velodrome

Last week we published this photo of Harlow's velodrome from the year it opened in 1976 and, as usual, Star readers have done us proud by getting in touch with their memories. Neil Dowie, from Church Langley, has fond memories of the track between 1982 and 1984.

"I was a boy and often used to go to the track with friends to ride my bike," he said. "The track was in need of repair then and it was notorious that if you fell off you'd end up with loads of large splinters!"

"We also used to ride fast high up on to the advertising boards for a laugh.

But they were quite rotten so when it was wet our wheels used to go through them and we'd end up with even more splinters from falling off!"

Ron Fitzhenry, of Woodhill, writes: "I used to attend as a spectator for just about every meeting held. It was quite a unique track and some people reckoned it was the second best in the country."

"Even though riders came from abroad for some big meetings and admission was free, attendance was never very good. I certainly regret its demise and also that of the Smirnoff scrambles."

DO YOU REMEMBER? Town centre concert

DOES this photograph ring any bells with you?

It was brought in by Margaret Brachtvogel (75), of Potters Field, Harlow, and shows some of the crowd who turned up for a summer town centre concert in 1955.

Margaret thinks the expectant crowd are waiting for legendary British jazz musician Kenny Ball.

If you remember the concert, know someone in the photograph or perhaps even recognise yourself, send your memories to Nostalgia, Harlow Star, 6 West Gate, Harlow, CM20 1JW or email vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk.

Lorry sheds cargo of wine

Harlow was nearly treated to its own wine lake when a lorry shed its load near the Moat House Hotel in Southern Way. Smashed wine bottles and full crates of plonk were left all over the road. The mess took more than five hours to clean up.

Down the tubes at swim pool

Harlow councillors tried out the new aquatubes at Harlow Pool. Though some were hesitant before going down the 'Wipeout' and 'Jetstream' tubes, they described the experience as "fantastic", "exhilarating" and "terrific". The tubes are expected to be officially opened in the next few weeks.

Plan for new arts centre

Lady Gibberd, widow of Harlow master planner Sir Frederick, is hoping to add another dimension to the town with a sculpture and arts centre. It will cost around £400,000 and is planned for Netteswellbury where there are six listed buildings including two ancient monuments.

Fountain of famine cash

Councillor Alan Jones has thanked Harlow residents for their generosity after a total of £473 was collected from the water fountain in the Harvey Centre shopping centre. The money will go to the Ethiopia Famine Fund.

BURNT MILL: Students were moved to tears by the testimonies of two survivors of the Nazi genocide who visited the school in First Avenue, Harlow, to mark Holocaust Memorial Day.

Ruth Barnett and Leslie Kleinman spoke of their ordeals during their visit to the school which was organised by the Holocaust Educational Trust to mark the anniversary of the liberation of the Auschwitz concentration camp.

History teacher Lee Bradbury said: "It was privilege for us to welcome Ruth and Leslie to the school and their testimony will remain a powerful reminder of the horrors so many experienced."

"We know it will encourage our students to learn from the lessons of the Holocaust and make a positive difference in their own lives."

Headteacher Helena Mills added: "Our students were moved to tears on occasions throughout the day and have learned how important it is to remember an historical event like this."

LITTLE PARNDON PRIMARY: Staff from the town's branch of the Wickes DIY store helped pupils and teachers at the school in Park Mead, Harlow, build a new allotment area.

A wide selection of fruit and vegetables were planted in the patch and pupils from each year group will be responsible for growing, harvesting and selling the produce in the community.

Lyn Edgely, learning support assistant and project co-ordinator said: "The children had a brilliant time putting the allotment together and are all extremely excited about getting involved with gardening in the future."

"It's a great assignment as the children are being encouraged to eat what they grow. It's providing the community with fresh produce, and money raised will go towards school trips."

She added that without the support of Wickes the project would have taken much longer to set up. (s)

STEWARDS: Crafty youngsters put their creative and cultural skills to the test during a two-day Chinese shadow puppetry workshop.

Inspired by a talk and demonstration from the Yellow Earth Theatre group, students in Year 8 at the Parnell Road school created their own shadow puppets based on animals in the Chinese zodiac.

"They really enjoyed the workshops and showed impressive enthusiasm and commitment to making this a memorable day for all involved," said a school spokesman. "The visit formed part of our commitment to promoting Chinese culture and language." (s)

FALCON HOUSEPrivate Residential and Day Care for the elderly

Falcon House is a long established quality care home which is privately owned and managed. The proprietor has been involved with the care of elderly people for some 18 years. Our name is synonymous to quality care. Falcon House was specifically designed for residential care and has all the facilities and aids to enable you to live as independently as possible. Falcon House has 2 double rooms and 22 single rooms all with en-suite facilities.

SERVICES OF THE HOME

Service of the home offers you a high standard. All meals take into account your likes and dislikes, meals may be taken in our dining room or, if you wish, in your own room. There will always be a choice of food on offer. Should a member of your family or a friend wish to eat with you, we would ask for a short notice of 24 hours. We can arrange for newspapers and small items to be purchased for you. We have a full laundry facility and items are returned within 24 hours.

ACTIVITIES AND HOBBIES

There are many activities which you can take part in. However, should you wish to introduce a different activity we would encourage it. We also arrange regular social events throughout the year. Should you not wish to take part in an activity your wish will be respected.

FREE Ideal Home Show tickets

BRITAIN'S favourite home improvement event – The Ideal Home Show – returns to London's Earls Court next month. And this week the Star is giving readers the chance to enjoy a day out in our great ticket giveaway.

More than 600 quality exhibitors will be taking part in this year's show, covering all areas of the home including interiors, home improvements, gardens, gadgets, food, housewares and shopping.

In addition there will be four stunning full size show houses including an exact replica of a house from TV's Coronation Street and a Royal Prince's House.

Celebrity spotters are in for a treat with the chance to see the show's ambassadors in the jam-packed theatre programme – Gregg Wallace, Linda Barker, George Clark, Suzi Perry, Fiona Philips and gardening expert Diarmuid Gavin.

The Ideal Home Show runs from March 11-27 and we have 1,000 pairs of weekday tickets to be claimed. But you will need to be quick as you must claim your free pair of tickets by midnight on Saturday (February 5).

There's no catch or money to pay. Simply log on to www.idealhomeshow.co.uk and follow the link to book tickets. Enter your details, together with this unique reference code – FMHS34 – which will enable you to download a maximum of two adult tickets to be used on any weekday show day (not weekends). Children aged 16 or under get free admission but you must request free child tickets when claiming your free adult tickets.

Normal on-the-door weekday entry for adults is £16, making this offer worth up to £32.

Additional show tickets can be purchased at the special advance ticket price of £11 (weekday adult, over 60s £10) or £13 (weekend adult, over 60s £12). Just follow the on-screen instructions or telephone 0844 415 4144.

For more information about The Ideal Home Show, log on to www.idealhomeshow.co.uk.

Terms & Conditions

A maximum of two free adult weekday (Monday-Friday) tickets per household can be claimed. Tickets can only be claimed online at www.idealhomeshow.co.uk and cannot be claimed by any other method. Tickets are available for use on any weekday show day. Tickets must be claimed by midnight on Saturday, February 5, 2011. Any claims after that date will be invalid. Tickets cannot be exchanged for cash and are not transferable. In the event of any dispute, show organiser Media10 Ltd has the right to refuse admission. Tickets can only be claimed online at www.idealhomeshow.co.uk.

Drama driven by power of poetry

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

A PECULIAR synthesis of poetry and performance exploring the oft-underrated power of verse opens at Old Harlow's Victoria Hall Theatre next week.

Written and directed by Yvonne Cull, a former head of English at Stewards School, Peculiar Pursuits takes poetry out of the classroom and brings it to life on stage in a series of one-act plays woven together into a flowing narrative. Featuring a reliably talented cast of Harlow Theatre Company stalwarts, a minimalist set and almost no props, the production will look at poetry's ability to delight, provoke, shock and move in a feast of words and drama.

"This is the final production of this type I will put on," said Yvonne. "I suppose you could call it my swansong."

"It's essentially a series of one-act plays, each based on a separate poem but linked together with my own dialogue to construct a narrative."

"The idea came from the classroom. I got so fed up with students questioning the importance of poetry and asking me why they had to study such a 'boring' subject I became determined to show exactly how exciting poetry can be."

Poets whose work features in Yvonne's latest production – her fourth for HTC – include Seamus Heaney, Carol Ann Duffy, Ted Hughes, Ogden Nash, Brian Patten and John Keats. Much of the material has been chosen by the cast themselves.

"I'm fortunate to have such a talented and knowledgeable cast working with me on Peculiar Pursuits," said Yvonne. "They have each chosen poems that really speak to them and this really comes across in the performance."

"I just hope that by transferring it to the stage and bringing it to life through some truly exceptional performances, those who still see poetry as stuffy, elitist, dull and unimportant will have their eyes opened to its power."

The production runs from Thursday, February 10 to Saturday, February 12 at Victoria Hall Theatre in Bury Road, Old Harlow. Performances begin at 8pm and tickets cost $8 ($6 concessions).

Love in the air at The Playhouse

IF you're fed up with the last-minute Valentine's Day dash to the petrol station to buy flowers and chocolates for that special someone, let Harlow Playhouse enjoy Cupid this year.

With a packed programme of live music, the theatre starts spreading the love on Thursday (February 10) when top tribute act Bublé Fever melts hearts with pitch-perfect renditions of the Grammy Award-winning crooner's love songs.

Featuring talented singer Rickie Arthur and a seven-piece live band, the show starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost $17.50 (£15 concessions/£12 under-21).

For those of a different vintage, The New Squadronaires then swing into action next Friday with a nostalgic set of wartime swing and jazz based on the hugely popular wartime RAF orchestra.

The concert starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost $18 (£16 concessions).

The temperature then rises on Saturday when legendary group The Three Degrees perform a hit-packed set of soul and disco classics to get you in the mood for love.

Featuring anthems including The Sound Of Philadelphia, Take Good Care Of Yourself and their million-selling classic When Will I See You Again, the show starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost $29.

The Valentine's programme draws to a close on Sunday with chart-topping '60s icon Gerry Marsden's career retrospective Gerry Cross The Mersey, featuring anecdotes about his time with Gerry & The Pacemakers and a live set of the group's biggest hits.

Tickets cost $18.50 (£16.50 concessions) and the show starts at 7.30pm.

Tickets for all shows are available from the box office on (01279) 431945 or www.playhouseharlow.com.

Boxing blockbuster an Oscar title contender

THE FIGHTER
certificate 15 1h55m

NOMINATED for seven Oscars, The Fighter is an incredible story of triumph against adversity in and out of the boxing ring.

The brutal and physically demanding sport has frequently been a magnet for plaudits. In 1977, Rocky won the Best Picture and Best Director awards while four years later Raging Bull landed Robert De Niro a deserved Academy Award as Best Actor for his riveting portrayal of Jake LaMotta.

More recently, Denzel Washington entered the Academy Awards ring with his powerful embodiment of wrongly imprisoned boxer Rubin 'Hurricane' Carter and director Clint Eastwood delivered a knockout blow with Million Dollar Baby, earning Hilary Swank her second Oscar.

The Fighter provides all of the usual emotional jabs and cuts as its working class hero defies the odds for one shot at glory. Tensions between the pugilist and his family threaten to derail his championship bid, culminating in the obligatory final flurry to coax the audience to its feet.

Micky (Mark Wahlberg) is a talented boxer from Massachusetts but he has always languished in the shadow of his half brother Dicky (Christian Bale), who famously knocked down Sugar Ray Leonard and then lost everything to the ravages of drugs and crime.

Trained by Dicky and managed by his monstrous mother Alice (Melissa Leo), Micky accepts lacklustre fights for scant reward until he is persuaded to cut himself loose from his loved ones and punch above his weight for the first time in his life.

New girlfriend Charlene (Amy Adams), who works in a local bar, encourages Micky to follow his dreams, incurring the wrath of the rest of the Ward clan who resent outsiders interfering in family business. Sure enough, Micky tastes victory and as his confidence grows he faces the possibility of a shot at the world light welterweight title.

The Fighter is well crafted by director David O'Russell, juxtaposing Micky's struggle for self-belief and self-respect with his unwavering love for his selfish and self-destructive family.

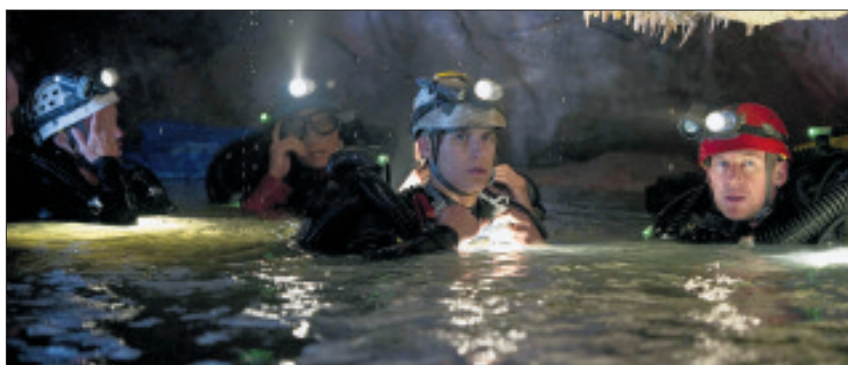

Wahlberg's non-performance is virtually mute next to Bale and Leo in full scenery-chewing flow, who compete for honours as the loudest caricature on the Ward family tree.

The script doesn't stray from our expectations, energised by Pamela Martin's slick editing in the well choreographed, bruising fight sequences.

LORDS OF THE RING: Christian Bale as Dicky Eklund and Mark Wahlberg as Micky Ward in THE FIGHTER

IN Papua New Guinea's deadly Esa'ala cave system, expert diver Frank McGuire (Richard Roxburgh) and his team – including Crazy George (Dan Wyllie) and Jude (Allison Cratchley) – search for the path to the sea.

They are under pressure to deliver results and adrenaline junkie financier Carl Hurley (Ioan Gruffudd) arrives at the dive site with his girlfriend Victoria (Alice Parkinson) to spur Frank on before a storm system forces the divers to return to the surface. Sure enough, the cyclone catches everyone off guard, trapping Frank, his headstrong 17-year-old son Josh (Rhys Wakefield), Carl, Victoria and the rest of the team. The only possible escape route is uncharted territory in the cave system, but Victoria has never dived before.

A LITTLE BIT OF HEAVEN
certificate 12A 1h46m

MARLEY Corbett (Kate Hudson) is vice president of an advertising agency in New Orleans. Full of energy and surrounded by great friends including sassy gal pal Sarah (Lucy Punch) and heavily pregnant Renee (Rosemarie DeWitt), Marley has everything to live for – except that she doesn't. A routine check up at the local hospital reveals she has cancer and the disease has spread too far throughout her body for chemotherapy to have any positive effect.

Supported by handsome doctor Julian Goldstein (Gael Garcia Bernal), Marley comes to terms with impending death, sharing the diagnosis with her clucky mother (Kathy Bates) and emotionally distant father (Bruce Greenwood).

Thankfully, Julian is a tower of strength and as Marley prepares for her passing she falls hopelessly in love with her medic.

Tangled (3D & 2D) Princess Rapunzel (Mandy Moore) is abducted from a castle by the scheming Mother Gothel (Donna Murphy), who covets the girl's magical hair. The golden locks shimmer with the secret of eternal youth but must never be cut or else the hair will lose its power and turn brown. Gothel confines the girl to a tower and convinces her she must never leave the fortress for fear that she will fall victim to the evils of man. Then, as Rapunzel celebrates her 18th birthday, swaggering outlaw Flynn Rider (Zachary Levi) happens upon the tower and climbs into Rapunzel's bedroom. At first she is wary of the intruder but he eventually convinces the fair maiden to disobey Gothel and travel to the castle to witness the annual display of fire lanterns.

Black Swan Ballet director Thomas Leroy (Vincent Cassel) chooses Nina Sayers (Natalie Portman) for the lead in his production of Swan Lake. Nina is technically gifted but she struggles to express her emotions on stage. When sensual ballerina Lily (Mila Kunis) is cast as understudy to the lead role, Nina feels threatened and believes the new girl is trying to usurp her. As Nina wrestles with fear and paranoia, she is soon teetering on the brink of an emotional breakdown.

The King's Speech

Nominated for 12 Oscars, it tells the story of how newly crowned King George VI (Colin Firth) overcomes a crippling stammer which renders him unable to deliver public addresses. With war imminent and the country looking to its monarch for leadership, Queen Elizabeth (Helena Bonham Carter) approaches unconventional Australian-born speech therapist Lionel Logue (Geoffrey Rush) and persuades him to help her husband.

Gulliver's Travels Lemuel Gulliver (Jack Black) works in the post room of a New York newspaper where he pines for travel editor Darcy Silverman (Amanda Peet) from afar. In order to impress the object of his affections, Gulliver blags a travel assignment to the Bermuda Triangle. Heading out to sea on his boat Notfersail, Gulliver is swept into a massive, swirling column of water and when he regains consciousness he discovers that he is a giant in the land of Lilliput. Feared at first by the tiny inhabitants, Gulliver ingratiates himself to King Theodore (Billy Connolly), Queen Isabelle (Catherine Tate) and their daughter Princess Mary (Emily Blunt).

>>movies for juniors

Diary Of A Wimpy Kid To American pre-teen Greg Heffley (Zachary Gordon), middle school is the dumbest idea ever invented. To survive and attain the recognition and status he feels he so richly deserves, Greg devises an endless series of can't-miss schemes, all of which, of course, go awry. And he's getting it all down on paper via a diary.

Your stars with
to guide you through the week ahead

Aries Mar 21-Apr 20
You're hoping to make a big breakthrough soon in what has been a challenging enterprise. At the same time, you know what you're up against and that it could take a lot longer. Exploring and discovering the unknown is a passion you can't explain; there is intrigue in not knowing what's around the next corner. Your confidence and excitement will be a potent aphrodisiac and your love life improves by the day.

Libra Sept 24-Oct 23
You dare to dare wonderful dreams full of sunshine and roses, puppies and unicorns. A relationship that ended prematurely is now on again for all the right reasons. You're starting to get your act together and you feel more hopeful for the future. New routines are being arranged to suit changing circumstances. This will make it easier for you to take on new responsibilities. Someone may warn you about building your hopes up too high; ignore them! You know what you are doing.

Taurus Apr 21-May 21
You've always been conscientious and you take your responsibilities seriously. Even so, don't make it an all work and no play week. If there's a way to combine business with pleasure, do it. Get the best out of both worlds. Stay positive even if you come across a minor stumbling block and don't spend too long with people who have a habit of attracting bad luck their way. It will be their negativity that's a magnet for trouble, not Fate!

Scorpio Oct 24-Nov 22
Your well organised schedule could be knocked into disarray and this will bring mixed feelings. It may be necessary to postpone a business meeting due to unexpected circumstances within the family. There's a limit to what you can do and currently, you know your priorities. The needs of your loved ones will come first. No more loudly a boss or senior colleague complains. The generation gap doesn't seem so wide now you realise people you considered too old or too young for you actually have a lot to offer.

Gemini May 22-Jun 21
Someone expects you to come up with the solution when a team project goes all wrong. What they don't realise is you've had much or as little experience as all the rest and you're just as confused as they are. One thing is certain: you will have the sense to know some people aren't ever going to work well together. You can tell when to call it a day. The weekend is a great time to book a holiday; you will feel as if you need one!

Cancer Jun 22-Jul 23
Any business conducted in faraway places should be profitable now. Deals made will be cost effective and may also bring a number of social invitations your way. Your charm and energy and enthusiasm will attract new friends and admirers. Money matters are about to take a turn for the better and both in your work and social life you will be mixing with positive, optimistic people.

Capricorn Dec 22-Jan 20
A measure of financial independence will give you a warm feeling of security. You are learning from past mistakes and so you'll handle your finances cleverly and more efficiently now and in the future. This is a good time to get long term plans really under way especially if they concern financial targets. A friend or colleague's moodiness has a lot to do with a recent disappointment. It's doubtful whether you can do anything to cheer them up.

Leo Jul 24-Aug 23
Get to know the ins and outs of the firm you are working for before offering any suggestions you hope might be useful. It is not a good idea to make crucial, on the spot decisions in areas where you have had no experience. What you have to bear in mind is you aren't the only one responsible for some jobs or situations and there are others who are quite capable of taking over should you need their help.

Aquarius Jan 21-Feb 19
Be receptive to new ideas even if it means taking on extra commitments over the next two weeks. With the New Moon in your sign high levels of perception will help you anticipate what people are going to say before they say it. Your personal interests will broaden over the weeks ahead and a new direction in your career could become available. Nothing will distract you from your plans to improve your lot.

Virgo Aug 24-Sept 23
You're becoming more aware of your guardian angels and you are opening up, spiritually, to their messages. You might start to combine your deep interest in healing and wellness with an alternative healing practice. This may involve some intense study or a weekend workshop. Either way this will bring some revealing insights that will help guide your life. Keep a promise made to a colleague even if it means going out of your way to do so.

Pisces Feb 20-Mar 20
Be kind to yourself and if there is something you are attempting to do that you've never done before, do it without an audience! People will offer advice and criticism in plenty and this could affect your performance. You should ignore everyone's comments in a courteous way and follow your own direction, regardless. Single? There's a possibility of romance arising from a meeting with someone in a quiet and peaceful venue.

Category Three-bed semi detached
Additional Two reception rooms, luxury bathroom, conservatory, single garage

Price £279,995

Agent Genesis Property Services, 3 High Street, Old Harlow. Telephone (01279) 422422

OUR Cover Property this week is a stunning home in Harlow's Fir Park, a very popular location. The house has been greatly improved and is a tastefully decorated three bedroom, semi-detached family home.

From the entrance porch with wood-effect laminate flooring there are doors leading to a downstairs cloakroom and lounge.

The latter has large Georgian-style, double glazed windows to the front, wood-effect laminate flooring and a central fireplace with marble hearth and surround with fitted gas fire. Double doors lead into the dining room, which also has wood-effect flooring and a sliding patio door leading into the conservatory.

The fitted kitchen has a selection of white wall and base units, a single drainer sink unit, built-in fridge/freezer, dishwasher and washing machine. There is also a large larder cupboard.

The first floor landing provides access to loft space which is part-boarded with light and power and a pull-down ladder.

Bedroom one has an extensive range of fitted wardrobes and bedside cabinets, while bedroom two has a deep built-in storage cupboard and bedroom three built-in triple width wardrobes.

The luxury bathroom has a white suite and separate fully tiled shower cubicle.

The back garden is private and enclosed with two paved patio areas, a lawn, flower and shrub beds, a timber shed and side access. A single garage with up-and-over door has light and power connected.

On the market for £192,000

GUILFORDS in Old Harlow is always a popular location for families.

It offers great value for money and is in a superb location close to open countryside and yet within a short walk of Old Harlow High Street and local schools. Harlow Mill train station is within a mile or so.

This three bedroom property is a terraced house with a pleasant, private garden. It has a ground floor cloakroom, lounge and kitchen/diner.

Agents Howick & Brooker have all the details. To arrange a viewing call (01279) 418888.

Offers of £125,000

IDEAL as a starter home or for a young family, this two bedroom, first floor flat is in a popular area on the outskirts of Harlow within easy reach of the town centre and its amenities.

Katherines, at Red Willow, has been improved and well decorated and now has a lovely, refitted kitchen with a range of wall and base units.

There is gas central heating throughout and plenty of storage space in the form of fitted wardrobes and cupboards.

Haart will make you an appointment to view by calling (01279) 443311.

On the market for £395,000

THIS lovely four bedroom house is in the Lawrence Moorings development in Sawbridgeworth. The development has continued to grow in popularity and with its stunning views, easy access to the town and its amenities plus excellent transport links, it's easy to see why.

From the lounge and master bedroom you can relax and enjoy the views along the riverside. From the back of the property you can gaze out across the marina.

The house has been decorated in neutral colours and would make an ideal property to move in to with very little to do.

Intercounty estate agents say early viewing is essential so book your appointment quickly on (01279) 600333.

Yours for £212,500

LOCATED on the outskirts of Harlow with easy access to rail stations in both Harlow and Epping, this three bedroom end-of-terrace house in Markwell Wood is well worth a closer look.

From the entrance hall, doors lead to the living room, a modern kitchen/diner with a good range of fitted wall and base level units, and a conservatory.

Upstairs there is a stunning family bathroom with a luxury white three piece-suite and three bedrooms.

The back garden includes a patio and shingled area and the house has separate rear access. There is also a garage and driveway.

Sapphire estate agents have further details. Give them a call on (01279) 408688.

THE UK housing market saw a surge in enquires in January 2011 – both for buyers and sellers – according to industry experts.

The buoyant start to the new year was recorded in a poll of almost 700 estate agents conducted by the National Association of Estate Agents. Almost two-thirds (59 per cent) of those surveyed said that the number of house hunters registering with them during the first two weeks of January was higher than they would normally expect for this time of year and the level of enquiries from potential sellers went up, with 45 per cent of NAEA members reporting an increase over the same period.

NAEA president Mike Jones said: "The market appears to have experienced a jump start to 2011. We are hopeful that this strong start to the year will continue into February."

The Building Societies Association has also released statistics which show that, despite the uncertainty of the housing market, the desire to buy remains as strong as ever in the UK. Their records show that 59 per cent of us would buy immediately or within the next 12 months if the deposit was already sorted out.

If you agree with these results then the selection of properties available in Homesnow this week will provide you with plenty of buying opportunities across the area.

Our fabulous Cover Property in Fir Park boasts an abundance of space and light with a wealth of laminate flooring enhancing its modern, fresh interior. We also feature a lovely family home in Old Harlow, a well-maintained two-bedroom flat off Brookside, a stunning riverside house in Sawbridgeworth and an end of terrace house in Markwell Wood.

Plenty to choose from whatever you're looking for!

SPRINGS' AROUND THE CORNER

The usual questions asked...are you seeing any improvement...when will the market improve...are we going to get out of this mess by spring? And of course, will Albion get promoted and beat Stoke City in the FA Cup?

There are certain signs of improvement. For example, in Church Langley, if the price is right, there are plenty of viewings and offers leading to sales agreed within days of going to the market. It is also busy out and about in the villages, which is unusual for this time of the year. You would expect interest in the spring when the bulbs start popping up and the verges change from mud brown with puddles into green borders with daffodils.

So, what's happening? Good question, lets see...Interest rates are still down, property prices seem to have 'bottomed out' and fewer houses coming to the market at the moment. Ingredients for more of an improvement with spring just around the corner.

Only one problem - mortgages! Plenty available, so the lenders say, shame they keep changing the rules midway through a purchase. The lenders are spoiling the market recovery, so the sooner they get their act together the quicker the recovery will be. Crazy!

This is such a lovely looking house. I like the unusual flint rendering - it gives a very classy appearance to a well presented 3 bedroom end terrace home.

Soft-top Fiat is a bundle of fun

By Iain Dooley

SOMETIMES it takes a clever piece of technology or simply a particular engine to make you look at a car in a different light.

In the case of Fiat's 500, the Italian firm's Twinair two-cylinder petrol engine is a revelation. Delivering low emissions and fuel consumption with the energy and character of its pioneering predecessor, the two-pot 500 is a joy to drive.

At the other end of the performance spectrum is the 500C Abarth. Fans of the 500 will instantly be familiar with the Abarth's go-faster connotations. In a nutshell, the tuning sub-brand offers affordable sporting thrills thanks to a range of well judged upgrades – not a million miles from Abarth's roots.

The 500 Abarth isn't an entirely new concept. You've been able to buy such a car for some time. What you haven't been able until recently is buy one in convertible form. As if a 140 horsepower 500 wasn't enough, Fiat have cut the roof off. Strictly speaking the 500C boasts a roll back roof as the car retains the door frame structure of its tin-top relative. This fabric cover can be electrically wound back the

FACTfile

Fiat 500C Abarth 1.4
16v Turbo T-Jet

from £17,500
on the road

Engine: 1.4-litre petrol unit developing 140bhp
Transmission: 5-speed semi-auto driving the front wheels
Performance: Maximum speed 128mph / 0-62mph 8.1 seconds
CO₂ emissions: 151g/km
Economy: 43.5mpg

car's full length, includes a heated glass screen and offers near-hatchback levels of refinement when in place. Somehow, even though a hatchback Abarth exists, it's hard not to be charmed by the 500C model and its enhanced features. Certainly, with the roof down, it's easier to hear the car's feisty engine thanks in part to a pair of oversize exhaust pipes. Those pipes join a modest but purposeful bodykit, chunky steering wheel, supportive sports seats, stylish alloy wheels and, crucially, retuned suspension settings. Ah yes, the main reason for buying the 500C Abarth is its performance potential. And while it won't worry the genuine hot hatchbacks occupying higher price points, the usable and accessible nature of this 500's performance is not to be sneezed at.

The 1.4-litre turbo petrol motor might only produce 140 horsepower but in a car this size that's plenty. This rev-happy engine snarls its way around the rev counter, emitting a buzzy, impatient sound that's highly addictive. In an unusual move, the 500C Abarth comes with a semi-auto gearbox complete with steering wheel paddleshifters. It's unusual for two reasons: such technology isn't cheap yet Fiat has managed to position the car competitively, plus this technology always divides opinion.

Luddites will bemoan the lack of a clutch pedal – the 500's gearbox is essentially a manual box with the clutch action controlled electronically. In practice, leaving the car in auto mode does require the driver to second-guess shift points and feather the throttle accordingly. And yes, that does take practice. However, stick the car in manual mode and you have full control over gearchanges. This is by far a more rewarding experience, and it doesn't take long before you're zipping up and down the gears with those deliciously weighted paddles. Better still is the car's Sport mode which adds more weight to the steering and sharpens the combined responses of the engine and gearbox.

Frankly, this can be left engaged all the time; far from turning the 500C into a temperamental trackday monster the sharper responses are welcome. Gear changes feel crisper and there's an audible change in the 500's exhaust note, giving it a 'big car' sound.

In short, the car is a hoot to drive. With no shortage of power, the 500C Abarth growls and screams its way from gear to gear, corner to corner. For a small car with sports suspension, its ride is surprisingly supple, too. Grip that chunky steering wheel and, while more communication would be nice, there's no question mark over the car's ability to go where you point it.

On a basic level the 500C Abarth displays an edgy character that the regular, cute 500 lacks. Not everyone wants a bulging bodykit and a beefy exhaust, which is why so many regular 500s have found homes. But that 'edge' is precisely what the 500 needs to appeal to a section of the buying public seeking a fun, small car with genuine talent.

It's easy for car makers to bolt on go-faster bits to create the illusion of enhanced performance. Fiat has done a thorough job with this 500C – something Abarth fans can be proud of.

Scrap

Scrap

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF). Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

The Marketing Team is a major contributor to our success, through the provision of promotional ideas, professional point of sales literature and front end support. The close-knit team is vibrant and full of passion and ideas.

This is an excellent opportunity for a highly motivated individual to progress their career to the next level, gaining further skills in all areas of marketing. The successful candidate will take responsibilities for key aspects of the activities within the sales and marketing department. You will need to be a self starter with a determination to deliver your objectives to the satisfaction of your customers.

You will be passionate about making things happen. Your positive personality and resilience will ensure you can create solutions to practical business challenges, and allow you to motivate others to do the same. It is a given that you will have strong interpersonal, communication and negotiation skills as well as being commercially aware. Preferably you should be educated to a degree standard in Marketing or a related subject.

If you believe you have the skills and abilities to fill this team position please apply online now at www.leisurecentre.com. Alternatively send a letter of application and full CV to: David Carter, Human Resources Assistant, Parkwood Leisure, Little Bowbrook, Walton Road, Hartlebury, Worcestershire, DY10 4JA

Cobras keep up 100% record

Youth football

SUMNERS U-9 Cobras maintained their 100 per cent record but they were made to fight all the way by a feisty Langley Colts Blue side.

Harry Jones (2), Jay Whitbread, Chay Cooper and Harry Bannister were on target in the 5-3 victory.

Sumners have won all 11 games in the West Essex & East Herts Youth Football League this season.

Sumners U-9 Vipers were unable to follow up their 6-1 win over Saturn the previous week as they were held to a 2-2 draw at Frontiers B.

Joss Almond struck twice for the visitors.

Sumners Youth Vipers U-10 beat Epping Youth Stags 3-2.

Scorers were Bobby Stewart and Joshua Salaman.

Sumners U-10 Cobras drew 1-1 at home to Alemite Blues in the Secretaries Cup. Jordan Mason netted for Sumners.

Murtagh shines in South Champs

STEVE Murtagh clocked a fraction over the hour mark when he ran in the Southern Counties Cross Country Championships.

The Harlow Running club member completed the tough, hilly nine-mile course at Parliament Hill in Hampstead Heath in a superb time of one hour 20 secs.

Murtagh was 223rd out of 885 finishers and was followed home by club colleagues Jason Haigh (571st, 1:10.12), Rick Ricketts (677th, 1:13.36) and John Tennant (693rd, 1:14.12).

They were followed by: Steve Ambrose (694th, 1:14.14); Matt Jones (749th, 1:17.15); Sean Flynn (778th, 1:19.01); Graham Pugh (813th, 1:21.25); Alan Cootes (820th, 1:22.21).

Saturday's event saw some of the best club athletes in southern England compete. It was marked by extremely muddy conditions.

Tye double up

TYE Green Whites notched a second successive win by beating Colt Hatch Social 6-2 in the Harlow & District Premier Darts League.

Leaders Servo Link scraped a 5-3 win over TwoPoundAPint (Dicky Smith 102 outshot).

White Admiral beat Moot House 7-1. Dave Galloway hit a 180 for Admiral.

Tye Green Whites won 6-2 at Golden Swift. Steve Salter struck a 180 for Whites.

Small Copper beat Stow Snooker 5-3 with a 108 outshot from Pat Yates (Stow Snooker). Other result: Tye Green Foxes 3, Staple Tye Colts 5.

Cats feline great as Harlow suffer slim defeat

IT was a case of so near, but yet so far as Harlow Hawks slipped to a narrow home defeat against Cambridge Cats in the Hertfordshire County Basketball League.

Hawks had their good moments in Friday's clash, but could never overhaul the visitors after they enjoyed an excellent start.

The Cats hit eight unanswered points in the first three minutes.

Brothers Simon and Luke Atkinson then got things going for the Hawks.

Simon converted from an offensive rebound and Luke converted a three-point play.

Harlow Hawks 86, Cambridge Cats 91

Subsequently, Hawks debutant Ali Miller hit a big three-pointer in the last minute, but Cats led 23-17 going into the second quarter.

This saw a number of calls from the referees going against the hosts, which caused frustration that spilled over into their play.

Nick Moss and player-coach Shab Niaz chipped in with nine points in the latter stages of the quarter, but the Cats had a healthy lead at the halfway stage.

Hawks started the third quarter better as they stepped up their pressure defence, which caused the Cats some problems.

The hosts reduced the deficit as they outscored the Cats by six points in the quarter and headed into the final period just 64-54 behind.

With nothing to lose the Hawks attacked, but the Cats also came out strongly and increased their lead to 19 points in the first three minutes.

Hawks then raised their game at both ends of the floor and scored an impressive 32 points in seven minutes.

However, controversial calls by the referees made it hard for the Hawks to stop the Cats from putting points on the board.

Harlow caused the Cats to turn the ball over three times in the last 20 seconds.

But the final shots just did not fall for the hosts and the Cats won by five points.

Player-coach Shab Niaz said: "We almost turned it around at the end."

HARLOW HAWKS: S. Niaz (27pts), L. Atkinson (14), Miller (11), Haddow (9), Moss (7), Z. Niaz (6), Allan (4), S. Atkinson (4), Spashett (3), Lee Jones (1), Oyerinde.

Munich calls the shots for Huckle

MARKSMAN James Huckle aims to bounce back from his disappointing performance in the IWK International Air Gun Competition in Munich.

The 20 year-old, from Old Harlow, came 49th out of 88 shooters with a score of 590 in the 10m air rifle category.

Top senior marksman from all over the world competed in the prestigious event in Germany, held last Wednesday.

Huckle's next major competition will see him compete in the European Championships at Brescia in Italy on March 2.

He told the Star: "It was slightly disappointing and I had dropped slightly from the standard I had set in the Commonwealth Games [in October]."

"It was my first senior ISSF (International Sports Shooting Federation) competition and it was a good competition and gives you an idea of where you stand."

Huckle took a break from the sport after the Commonwealth Games in India, where he gained four medals.

He had been working on the technical side of his game.

Shooting

The training is now being stepped up in intensity and the former Mark Hall School student is keenly aware that a lot is at stake this year.

"I will be training six times a week and I want to score four points better in the European event than I did in Europe. That should get me a top eight spot," said the young shooting ace.

"Everyone is a lot more serious. This is the year for qualifying for the Olympics [in London 2012]."

He added: "You notice it and everyone has been training [hard] for the last three years. But this is what competitive people enjoy."

"Every athlete has goals and I think technically I was maybe not as good as I could have been last year. I'm hoping that along with the competition practise I'll be getting this year it will all come together and I'll produce some of the best performances that I've done."

Huckle shone in the Commonwealth Games in India, winning medals in the 10m rifle pairs (silver), 10m air rifle (bronze), 50m position rifle (bronze) and 50m three position pairs rifle (silver).

Thumping win ignites Hawks' season

Aylesbury Dux 40, Harlow Hawks 74

Herts County Basketball League, division one

HAWKS player coach Shab Niaz is looking for his team to kick on after their thumping away win over basement side Aylesbury Dux in the Hertfordshire County League on Sunday.

It came two days after a narrow defeat against Cambridge Cats.

"On Sunday with a slightly smaller squad we continued where we had left off on Friday and got a good win with everyone contributing," said Niaz.

"Now we need to try and maintain this level of play as a team."

Harlow Hawks started tentatively at Aylesbury and it needed five points from new boy Ali Miller at the end of the first quarter to put them 13-10 ahead. In the second period, sharp shooter Dave Spashett dropped eight quick points for the visitors.

Although Harlow did not gain complete control, their tight defence restricted Aylesbury to eight points.

Hawks led 25-18 at the halfway stage.

The third quarter saw the visitors run riot, scoring 35 points.

Miller netted 16 points and Spashett was also a penetrating attacking force.

Meanwhile, Luke Atkinson blocked shot after shot from the hosts.

Hawks led 60-29 going into the final quarter, which saw them maintain their strong defence.

The visitors had a number of baskets disallowed, but these were immaterial as Harlow chalked up a welcome win.

HARLOW HAWKS: Ali Miller (29pts), Spashett (17), S. Atkinson (8), Moss (7), S. Niaz (5), L. Atkinson (4), Russ Allan (4), Oyerinde.

February's the deadline to get grant for new teams

FOOTBALL clubs aiming to develop new youth and adult 11-a-side teams are being specifically targeted by the Essex County FA, who wish to assist with applications for 'Grow the Game' funding before the window closes on Monday February 28.

The start of 2011 brought good news from the Football Foundation, who have reopened the window for the grants, and the Essex County FA are working hard to ensure that clubs make the most of this opportunity.

The £5,000 available to each club will only be open to projects that plan to develop two to four new teams, at least one of which must commence in the 2011-12 season.

Open since January 3, the window dovetails perfectly with the county's desire to address the decline in teams re-registering and see growth in key areas for 2011 and beyond.

The aim is to use this funding to support clubs and organisations with a specific focus on developing the growth of new youth and/or adult 11v11 teams, although all applications are reviewed.

In order to assist applicants in submitting their forms, the Essex County FA have arranged a special workshop from 7pm-9pm on Monday February 7 at the County Office in Chelmsford.

Attendees will be walked through the process and given tips about how to structure a strong application with an additional opportunity for questions and queries.

In the latest edition of ECFA Magazine, issued just before Christmas, an item entitled Football: The Harsh Realities, revealed concerns over the decline in the number of teams re-registering each year in the county.

Essex FA Senior Football Development Officer John Manning explained: "Following a comprehensive research study it provided us with a clearer picture of which clubs saw a fall in their numbers, at which age groups, in which areas and what the reasons were."

"Not surprisingly, given the current economic climate, finances featured in the top five reasons for a lack of affiliation. However, a lack of players and volunteers came out on top."

● Grow the Game is one of organised by the Foundation, the UK's largest sports charity, providing cash for projects increasing participation by both volunteers and players.

Young Rams lose in Essex Cup last eight

THE Young Rams lost to Westcliffians 48-14 in the quarter-final of the Essex Under-15s County Cup.

Harlow restricted the visitors to only two tries and one conversion during the first half. Harlow scored an excellent try through centre Rhys Davies.

This was converted by scrum-half Chay Clark as Westcliffians led 12-7 at the interval.

Harlow continued to defend well in the second half, but as the match wore on the visitors ran in four more tries, all converted.

The Young Rams scored a second try through Scott Whitby, converted by Whitby.

Duo help team chalk up win

Tennis

STRONG performances from Richard Baxter and Fred Lloyd provided the platform for Harlow Tennis Club's 10-6 win at Pleshey in the Essex Men's Small Tennis league.

Baxter and Lloyd overcame Paul Dunn and Dave Andrews 6-1, 6-2.

Baxter and Lloyd then beat the second pair John Stone and Richard Parsons 6-2-6-3.

The match was marked by a home player sustaining a cut hand after he slipped on the damp court in playing a shot.

Harlow's Steve Dodd and Paul Pattinson started slowly against Stone and Parsons and the visitors' pair lost 3-6, 1-6.

Dodd & Pattinson recovered in his second match to draw 3-6, 6-4 against Paul Dunn and Dave Andrews after being a set down.

Promotion for HAC after League breakaway

Athletics

HARLOW Athletics Club's men's team will compete in a higher division in the Southern League next season.

This follows the formation of a breakaway league, which will combine men's and women's teams.

At present Harlow AC, based at Mark Hall Sportscentre, does not have a women's team.

The men's team will operate in division two north next year, rather than division three.

A Harlow AC spokesman explained: "This is due to the breakaway Southern Athletics League that has been formed and basically the Southern League has consequently lost 30 teams.

"Our five League dates remain the same. Our [division] will comprise 16 teams, but there are also four teams left over and classed as 'floaters' which the League are currently trying to fit in where they can.

"This will no doubt cause huge problems for the League trying to get venues for these meetings and no doubt they will try to get as many joint matches with the SWL [Southern Women's League] as possible."

Harlow managed to acquire the services of Great Britain 800m runner Andrew Osagie for one meeting last season.

It is also hoped that Osagie, who will turn 23 on February 19, will compete in at least one meeting in the forthcoming campaign.

The club is desperately short of middle- and long-distance runners.

It also needs coaches for its senior men's team.

Club chairman Alex Steel told the Star: "I'm working on how to encourage more seniors to the club. The problem with the seniors is that they also need coaching.

"We need middle-distance runners, but we also need middle-distance coaches."

Steel has approached England Athletics supremo Robert Thickpenny in an attempt to bring in some senior coaches.

"It's not so much funding that we need, but if we can get a coach to coach the [seniors] regularly, then we can get the members to come in. The members won't turn up if there is no coach."

The club has lined up three female coaches who could start in April. They now need to attract more women members.

The club is not only home to GB runner Osagie, but also partially sighted Paralympic gold medalist Noel Thatcher, Anne Wafula Strike and Richard Chiassaro, tipped by many to be a multi-gold medal winner in the Paralympics in London in September 2012. The club's all-ability section, when disabled athletes are coached every Monday by the likes of coach Bob McKinley, is going from strength to strength.

● The club will hold its annual meeting at Mark Hall on February 19.

Niall's Scot the BATTS honours

Table tennis

EXPERIENCED Scotland table tennis international Niall Cameron won the latest round of the BATTS Super League in Old Harlow.

The event, held at the BATTS headquarters at the Norman Booth Leisure Centre in Mulberry Green, reverted to its traditional format of 32 players.

Cameron, the Scotland No.4 seed, is one of the fittest players on the circuit and looked sharp throughout, recording four 3-0 victories on the way to the final.

He accounted for Luke Walsh (11-4, 12-10, 11-9), John Dennison (11-6, 11-7, 11-6) and Martin Kubrt (11-8, 11-2, 11-4).

In the semi-final, he beat England No.8 woman international Lauren Spink (11-4, 11-9, 11-8).

He took on England No.6 junior Lewis Gray in the final.

The real drama took place in the fourth game.

Cameron led 9-6 and appeared set to deliver the fait accompli.

But Gray was having none of it. He responded with his best sustained spell of play of the evening to pinch the next five points and send the game into a thrilling fifth and final set.

This may have given him the momentum against a less experienced player – but not Cameron. He went on to win what was a superb match 11-4, 8-11, 11-7, 9-11, 11-7.

Lauren Spink, who beat Cameron earlier in the season in the BATTS Super League, had another fine evening.

She beat Dave Langham (11-6, 11-4, 11-8) and Tony Halling (6-11, 11-9, 11-4, 12-14, 11-9) and then she pulled off one of the best wins of the night to defeat the 59-year-old England No.8 veteran Nigel Eckersley (11-9, 11-6, 12-14, 11-5).

After her semi-final defeat to Cameron,

Spink finished strongly, defeating England No. 21 veteran Costas Papanioniou (11-4, 11-9, 11-1) to come a marvellous third.

Round one saw Ian McLean prevail in the longest match of the night, a five-set thriller against Maciej "Magic" Nakielski (11-4, 11-4, 7-11, 9-11, 16-14).

However, McLean didn't progress any further. He was beaten by improving Fellows Cranleigh British League player Anthony Kent (England No. 299) in another five-set thriller (11-7, 7-11, 12-10, 5-11, 13-11).

Kent lost to eventual finalist Gray (7-11, 2-11, 3-11).

Round two had seen Gray save two match points to avoid a 3-1 defeat against England No. 72 Veteran Tony West (9-11, 11-7, 11-6, 14-12, 11-5).

In another upset No.3 seed John Nilsson departed in the second round. He lost 10-12, 8-11, 14-12, 10-12 to fellow BATTS British League team-mate Jimmy Walsh.

Walsh lost to Papanioniou in a thrilling five-set quarter-final.

Sad times for one of League's oldest clubs

JANUARY was certainly a bleak month for one of the longest-serving members of the Bishop's Stortford, Stansted & District Football League.

And Hatfield Heath FC faces a battle until the end of the season when it seems certain its two teams will merge into one – or fold completely.

The first team, in the premier division, have taken the brunt of the lack of players which has forced the club to sign a batch of inferior players to make up the numbers.

This has been done because the club desperately do not want to leave the League in the lurch by folding completely.

Heath first came to prominence when they won the premier division title in the 1936-37 season.

They have won the premier title eight times and the Premier Division Cup on six occasions.

However, this season is a far cry to those magical days.

Having lost 15-1 in a premier division match to Alemitte last week, Hatfield went down 17-0 at home to the same opponents in the Bill Bruty Cup first round on Saturday.

This comes after it was unable to field teams for two games in January.

League chairman Ron Hampton paid tribute to Hatfield Heath. He said: "I admire their courage to go out there and take a hammering. Any side would struggle against Alemitte. They are struggling to keep the side alive."

"They are one of the oldest teams in the League. They are doing it in the interests of keeping the team going until the end of the season."

Alemitte's scorers included: Nathan Blake (5), Anthony James (2), Gavin Cockman (2), Niall Boland (2), Tony Fry (2), Rocky Cooke and James Gordon.

Heath Rovers progressed to the third round with a 3-2 win at Avondale Rangers.

Albury maintained their slim division one title hopes with a 3-1 home win over Sheering reserves.

was well blocked by the busy Rovers defence.

As half-time approached, Neal showed courage to block from Stadhart who was through on goal, while Akers' acrobat over head kick was blocked on the goal-line by Rovers centre-half Marc Gorbell.

Stadhart wasted two gilt-edged chances early on in the second half before Harlow's best chance came and went on the hour mark. Akers slipped the ball through to Getro Kilapi and his close-range effort was pushed onto the left post by Neal.

Rovers failed to clear and Ferguson's fierce effort from the right was saved by Neal.

The breakthrough arrived on 76 minutes. Cowley sent a dangerous left-wing cross to the near post and substitute Leon Antoine's goal-bound flick was handled by Gorbell.

Brown stepped up and calmly slotted the ball into the bottom right corner, past Neal's despairing dive.

It was Harlow's first victory since they beat Ilford 2-0 on December 14 – and the last time they kept a clean sheet!

Hawks co-owner Tom Cunningham said: "We've had a bad run since November, but we just need to put a few results together and the confidence will come back."

HARLOW TN: Hasell 6, Barnard 6, Brown 6, Stewart 6, Gledhill 5, Kilapi 6, Ferguson 7, Lalite 7, Stadhart 7 (Antoine 57, 5), COWLEY 7 (Modeste-Humphrey 82), Akers 7 (Roache 69, 5). Subs not used: Wheeler, Winston. Yellow card: Stewart (dissent). Att: 146.

not been flattering, but the last thing the club needed was a knee-jerk reaction," he said.

"Calm heads are needed now as the play-offs loom close, and Danny has a great opportunity to help shape the destiny of Harlow Town during the coming few months.

"Obviously we have invested heavily in this team, so it was important that we made the right decision about our management structure and did not rush into any hasty changes.

"We still believe we can reach the play-offs this season. Our plans don't stop at promotion either; we want to embrace a youth policy going forward and make this a community-based club that is the envy of our rivals in the league."

Happy Harknett

LEWIS Harknett shone for Harlow Athletic Club in an Essex Open U-11 Cross Country League event at Braintree on Saturday.

Lewis finished a fine 2nd place in the 1.5 mile race. His twin brother Owen was 5th with Christian Barker achieving a fantastic 6th place.

In the girls race (1.5 miles), Millie Ball was the first Harlow finisher in 14th spot, closely followed by Jessica Clive (16th).

Lauren Baker was 17th despite suffering with stomach cramp.

They were followed home by Katie Woodstock (18th), Elise Bailey (19th) and Laura Jephcott (28th).

Amelia Barrett (14) was 33rd out of 250 in the 4km race (16 mins, 28 secs) at the Southern Cross Country Championships last Saturday at Parliament Hill, London. She was just 90 seconds behind the winner.

In the U-13 girls Alicia McARDell was 64th over 3km in 13:47, while Dan Yaxley (18) ran an indoor best in the 800m (2:00.4) for 4th at the London Games at Lee Valley, North London.

Chapman confident side can build on wins

HAWKS boss Danny Chapman is confident his side can build on their two wins in their next two games.

Harlow Town face Sudbury away on Saturday and then Potters Bar Town on Tuesday.

Chapman said: "Sudbury beat Potters Bar 6-0 last Saturday and it will be a difficult game but if we play like we have done over the last two games we are more than capable of beating any side on our day."

Danny Brown, right, is set to continue at left-back as Sacha Opinel is ruled out with a calf strain.

Chapman is happy with how Laurie Stewart and Lee Gledhill have done.

Utility player Mark Taylor is set to continue his comeback from a hip related injury in the reserves against Potters Bar last night (Wednesday).

Chapman said that keeper Tony Winston had been signed from Redbridge on the recommendation of Harlow keeper coach Steve Wallduck.

Must get Becc to winning!

Sudbury 30, Harlow 14

RFU London division two north east

THE Rams face a must win game when they host fellow strugglers Beccles this Saturday.

Harlow are bottom after they lost at Sudbury five days ago and basement side Beccles beat Old Streetonians 11-6 to go 11th in the 12-team table.

Beccles (15 points) lead Harlow (14) by a point and only 10th-placed Streetonians (17) are within touching distance.

Rams forwards coach Peter Claridge said: "We need to win this game and we have drummed that into the players. If we win this we could go above Beccles and Old Streetonians."

"We have to make sure we break the tackle. Too often players get the ball and stop. We have been working on this in training."

It is not known how many teams will go down, but if Harlow lose to Beccles, it would leave them with a nearly impossible task to stay up.

Ram fly-half Michael Dobson returns after missing the Sudbury game as he was abroad and Paul Johnson may return.

The prop has already served a two-game ban after being sent off against Canvey Island 19 days and unless the Essex RFU add to the two-match ban imposed by the club, Johnson should start.

Scrum-half Charlie Woodington will continue to be unavailable

THE EX FACTOR:
The experience of Paul Eynon will be crucial for the Rams in Saturday's four pointer (HSP0707909) through work commitments and coach Lee Harron is set to deputise again.

Sudbury scored the first of their six unconverted tries when poor Harlow tackling let them score a breakaway five-pointer on three minutes.

However, three minutes later, Harlow lock Darren Hawkins powered over for a try converted by Mark Barr to put the visitors 7-5 ahead.

Sudbury then took control, scoring three more tries in the first half after the ball was spun out wide.

Harlow trailed 20-7 at the break.

Shortly after half-time the home forwards started a move which led to their fifth try and the hosts made it 30-5 when a breakaway led to a touch down.

Shortly before the end, Hawkins burst past two home players to score Harlow's second try.

This was converted by Marc Barr, but it was too little too late.

Claridge added: "The tackling was poor and the commitment to the breakdown was not good enough. Darren Hawkins played well and his second try was very good."

be delighted that his side has secured two wins in his four games in charge, but the victory away to promotion-chasing Thamesmead was undoubtedly the best.

It followed Saturday's 1-0 victory over Great Wakering Rovers which ended a three-match losing run.

Harlow had the best of the opening play on a bobbly Thamesmead pitch, but it took them until the 16th minute to have their first real chance. In a goalmouth scramble, David Cowley, Lee Roache, Steven Ferguson and Leon Antoine all had chances to break the deadlock.

A minute later striker Roache and Cowley both had chances saved well by Thamesmead keeper Sam Mott.

Harlow took the lead on 35 minutes when Lalite's neat through ball sent his ex-Thurrock team-mate Roache clear.

The young striker tucked the ball underneath the Thamesmead keeper to score his first Harlow goal.

Harlow did have the ball in the net again three minutes later, but winger Steve Ferguson's header was ruled offside much to the dismay of the visiting players, plus Hawks fans behind the goal.

But the Londoners equalised just a minute before half-time when Ryan Briggs struck. There was an element of controversy about this as Harlow felt a home player was in an offside position.

Harlow came out for the second half with the bit between their teeth and scored just two minutes into the second period.

Antoine's well-placed header from Cowley's corner lopped over Mott and found the bottom right corner.

Cowley's dipping shot was well turned over by Mott.

Harlow continued to apply pressure and went close on a number of occasions.

Thamesmead took the upper hand in the final few minutes, but the Harlow defence did well to thwart any danger and hold on to the three points.

Chapman said: "The players did ever so well and did everything that was asked of them."

"For their goal there was a player in an offside position near goal [interfering with play] and the linesman raised his flag, but the ref ignored that."

"We did not feel sorry for ourselves and came out determined for the second half."

HARLOW TN: Hasell, Barnard, Brown, Gledhill, Stewart, Kilapi, Ferguson, Lalite, Roache, Antoine (Stadhart 53), Cowley. Subs not used: Winston, Akers, Peagram, Wheeler.

Att: 52.

One stays, one goes

LEFT-back Sacha Opinel has turned down a move back to his old club, Burgess Hill Town.

Opinel, who runs a bar in South London, is committed himself to Harlow Town and rejected the chance to rejoin the Ryman division one south outfit.

Opinel played at Leylands Park until September before joining Harlow.

Meanwhile, goal-keeper Rhys Madden, right, has left the Barrows Farm club for Essex Senior League club Witham Town.

Madden replaced James Hasell as first team keeper in late September.

He won the Ryman League division one north Safe Hands Award for October after Harlow did not concede a goal in the entire month.

However, Hasell was restored as No.1 in December.

"He [Madden] was frustrated at not playing, but Danny [Chapman] did not feel we have had a bad run because of James Hasell. We wish Rhys all the best and hope he gets a first team spot elsewhere," said Hawks co-owner Tom Cunningham.

Harlow have dropped their interest in Ware central defender Matt Turpin. They had put in an even-day approach for the player.

Reece Yorke looks likely to remain at npower League Two club Barnet.

Ladies fight back to make point

A HAT-TRICK from skipper Emma Tweddle salvaged a draw for Harlow Ladies against third-placed East London.

In snatching a point from Saturday's clash, Harlow twice came back from two-goal deficits, while Tweddle's haul included two late goals.

The visitors broke the deadlock on 14 minutes when a crisp shot from the right eluded Harlow keeper Linda Rowley and went into the net.

Three minutes later, the hosts equalised. A penalty

Essex Women's Hockey League, premier division corner was finished by Tweddle, after a one-two with Sonya Amos.

The East London side then scored twice on 24 and 27 minute to go 3-1 ahead. A penalty corner was converted low into the right hand corner of the goal before a square pass across the goal perfectly picked out the waiting centre-forward to finish.

The home side reduced the deficit on 47 minutes. Carolyn Welsford slammed home the ball after she had combined with Tweddle.

The visitors restored their two-goal advantage on 52 minutes. The ball went loose around the right goal-post before the ball was poked into the home net.

Harlow closed the gap in clinical fashion through Tweddle after a penalty corner earned by Anna Ferdinando was netted.

With seven minutes remaining, a Harlow counter-attack ended with Welsford's reverse-stick cross finding Tweddle who flicked the ball between the keeper's legs to make it 4-4.

Harlow play Southend away this Saturday before they host Wapping in a rearranged double-header on Sunday.

Harlow are fifth in the table.
HARLOW: Rowley, Shearman, Figg, Chambers, Trimble, Tweddle, Welsford, Ferdinando, Esterhuysen, Amos, Spencer.

NEW boss Danny Chapman can turn around the fortunes of the ailing Hawks says co-owner Tommy Cunningham.

And the former Harlow Town boss remains confident of a play-off place this season.

Chapman (29), top right, was promoted from assistant manager to caretaker boss after Kevin Warren quit the club a fortnight ago due to work commitments.

And the new boss and his charges will have been greatly boosted by their two victories in the space of four days this week.

Cunningham, bottom right, does not want to put the former Hawks favourite under any pressure, so will analyse the managerial position on a game-to-game basis.

"It would have been easy to have appointed another manager from outside the club, but that's not our style," said Cunningham.

The former Leyton Orient and QPR defender revealed that he had received SIX applications for the manager's position at Barrows Farm.

Cunningham explained: "We could have brought in another manager - I've had three or four on the phone this week - but we wanted to give Danny a chance to show what he can do."

"A new manager would invariably want to bring in his own people, but the last thing we would want to do at the moment is uproot everything we've achieved and start all over again."

Prior to Saturday, Harlow had picked up one league win since October 25.

But Cunningham believes Harlow have had their 'Chelsea' moment and can now try and put a run together and fight for a play-off spot.

"We started [the season] strongly with a 24-point run, yet we earned only five points from our 10 matches [prior to Saturday]. I don't know what you put that down to."

"Some might say that's football - just ask Chelsea about that. We might have gone from flying high in October to coping some dreadful results recently, but I believe in our players and I know we can pull this around."

Cunningham is determined to take as much pressure off Chapman as possible. "I think it's sensible for us at the moment to take it one game at a time. We all know results have >>Continued on page 83
